

Suggested Schedule

Time 12 hours

8:00am – 9:00am

Plan, plan, plan! Read through the parameters, brainstorm ideas. Come up with a plan.

Tip: Don't use too many characters and keep the plot simple.

Plan where you want illustrations and decide what they will be. Decide on a style, tone and point of view. Brainstorm your characters.

Tip: Keep talking, communicating and planning for the full hour.

9:00am – 10:40am

Plan your chapters. Consider what will be in each one and how they will connect. Decide how you are going to connect your chapters together and where you will use foreshadowing.

Allocate chapters, word count and the mandatory 'random words' to your writers. Brief the illustrator/s. Work on your first draft.

10:40am – 11:00am

Have a break. Then come back with 'fresh eyes' and read through your draft and discuss your progress so far.

11:00am – 1:00pm

Keep working on your first draft. Ideally this will be finished by lunchtime.

1:00pm – 1:30pm

Relax. Time to take 30 minutes off. Leave your workspace, go for a walk, refresh.

1:30pm – 2:00pm

If you can, print your first draft and read through your book, editing with a pen. Make notes, annotate, make corrections, changes, edits.

Check ideas are connected, that you use foreshadowing, that you build tension, that you have addressed the issues required and have included the parameters.

Tip: Remember to be kind to each other. Listen to feedback without taking it personally. You are all a team and are working towards a common goal.

2:00pm – 4:00pm

Make corrections and edits. Finalise your illustrations. Finish off your second draft.

4:00pm – 5:00pm

Swap your chapter with another writer and edit each other's work. Check for continuity.

5:00pm – 5:30pm

Dinner time!
